

THE DETROIT INSTITUTE OF ARTS

EXHIBITION OF PAINTINGS

by

FREDERICK BALLARD WILLIAMS

FREDERICK BALLARD WILLIAMS was born in Brooklyn, New York, October 21, 1871. He was a pupil of Cooper Union and National Academy of Design schools. Associate National Academy of Design, 1907. Elected Academician, N. A. D., 1909. Member New York Water Color Club, Lotus Club, Salmagundi Club, National Arts Club, New York Society of Painters. Represented in National Gallery, Washington; Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York; Albright Gallery, Buffalo; Brooklyn Institute Museum; Hackley Art Gallery, Muskegon, Michigan; City Art Museum, St. Louis.

1. Vermont Hillside
2. California Green and Gold
3. The Tree Archway, Pt. Lobos
4. Under Summer Boughs
5. California Hillside
6. In Hours of Ease
7. Santa Barbara Hills
8. La Honda
9. In an Old Garden
10. Peace and Happiness
11. When Hillside Shadows Fall
12. Edge of the Foothills
13. When Boughs Are Green
14. The Golden Glade
15. A Quiet Retreat
16. The Secluded Dwelling
17. Ariadne
18. Arcadian Caprice
19. Miramar
20. Across the Fields
21. Half Dome, Yosemite
22. Autumn Fete

JANUARY 1 TO 31, 1923