The Society of Western Artists

THE SOCIETY OF WESTERN ARTISTS was organized in Chicago, Ill., March 11, 1896, and is the outcome of a general feeling amongst the artists of the Western States that they were at a disadvantage as compared to those of the more closely connected communities in the East, in the fact that they are so widely separated. It was thought that by a united action and the organization of a society very much good could be affected and the work of western artists brought before the public in a more satisfactory manner than has hitherto been done. They have asked all other artists to join them in forming the collection of pictures, etc., contained in this, their Third Annual Exhibition, which, starting in Detroit, will go in turn to the cities of St. Louis, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Chicago and Cleveland.

The response to the invitation issued by the society has been very large. From the works submitted to the Jury the present collection has been selected. From the artists represented a number will be elected to membership of the society.
