Mr. Robert Hopkin's Collection of Paintings

On Exhibition at the Detroit Museum of Art
May, 1901

MR. ROBERT HOPKIN, the veteran artist of Detroit, is so well known to all picture lovers as to require no introduction. Poetic in temperament, he woos nature in all her changing aspects and with a free, full brush transfixes on the canvas in glowing colors her subtle charms. Morning, noon and evening all seem to suggest something worthy of the artist's skill. To see his paintings is to love them.
