

FIRST ANNUAL EXHIBITION

BY THE

Hopkin Club Painters

DECEMBER 4th TO 31st
1911

The Museum is open to the public free, every week day from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m; on Sundays from 2 to 4 p. m.

THE City of Detroit and the Detroit Museum of Art are under many obligations to the artists of the Hopkin Club from whom so many and valuable paintings are borrowed for this exhibition. Our resident artists, of which no city in the middle west can boast a more talented group, have gone to considerable expense in order to bring this exhibition before the people of their home town, and on behalf of the painters whose patriotism is appreciatively acknowledged, the Detroit Museum of Art will forego any commissions in the sale of their works and any officer or employee will gladly advise anyone in regard to the purchase of such pictures and will correspond with the artist or give the artist's address to any citizen, and no compensation of any kind will be charged for such service.
