

CIRCUIT EXHIBITION OF CONTEMPORARY ART
OF THE
NATIONAL ARTS CLUB

FEBRUARY 11 TO MARCH 10
1911

The Museum is open to the public free, every week-day from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.; on Sundays from 2 to 4 p. m.

¶ This exhibition of Contemporary Art, comprising the work of some of the most representative landscape, portrait and figure painters, was organized by the National Arts Club of New York, and shown in its Galleries in January, and through its generous attitude toward art education, it was led to send the collection for exhibition in other public galleries throughout the country.

¶ The Detroit Museum of Art receives the exhibition direct from the National Arts Club, and after the close of the exhibition here, it will be seen in the Worcester Art Museum, the Rhode Island School of Design, and other similar institutions.
