

ARCHITECTURAL EXHIBITION

OF THE

Detroit Architectural Club

APRIL 4 TO 21

1911

The Museum is open to the public free, every week day from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.; on Sundays from 2 to 4 p. m.

THE general character of this Exhibition is intended to be Architectural, but examples of work in the Allied Arts have been included, in order to impress upon the general observer the high standard of excellence which architects believe should prevail in all new work.

The exhibits here shown have been carefully selected from hundreds which were submitted, and they are held to be worthy examples of that standard which should be the basis of all work which may be executed between this and the next Exhibition to be held by the Detroit Architectural Club.
