

Paintings of Tryon, North Carolina

By LOIS WILCOX

Detroit Museum of Art

November 8th to 30th

1913

Miss Lois Wilcox is a talented young painter whose work is influenced by the open air school of modern landscape painting. She has studied with such well known painters as Frank V. Dumond, H. R. Poore, Raphael Collin, Phillip L. Hale, Frank W. Benson and Williard L. Metcalf. The collection will be especially interesting to those who know the country about Tryon.
