CHARLES H. WOODBURY

was born at Lynn, Mass., in 1864. He was a pupil of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Boston, and at the Julian Academy in Paris, under Boulanger and Lefebvre. He is widely known as a marine painter, having received many important medals and honors on his pictures of the ocean, and through the representation accorded him in many of the public and private collections of this country. His painting is done mostly at Ogunquit, Me., where he has the sea constantly before him.

He is a National Academician, and a member of many of the important societies for the promotion of art.

The Pictures are for sale; for prices inquire at the desk.
