THE Chicago Society of Etchers was organized in January, 1910, with twenty members. At the end of 1913, it had 86 active, 196 associate and 15 honorary members. The majority of the associates are in Chicago and its suburbs with one or two each in eighteen different cities of the United States. Our active members represent fourteen states with the larger number in Illinois and New York. Canada has 2, Italy 3, Bruges 1, France 13, England 5, Japan 2 and Germany 1.

During the season of 1913 and 1914, one small and three large rotary exhibitions were sent by the Society to the following cities: Cincinnati, Toledo and Cleveland, O.; Indianapolis, Ind.; Turner's Falls and Worcester, Mass.; Syracuse, N. Y.; Newark, N. J.; Grand Rapids and Detroit, Mich.; St. Louis, Columbia and Kansas City, Mo.; Minneapolis, Minn.; Lawrence, Kas.; Denver, Pueblo and Boulder, Colo.; Los Angeles and San Francisco, Calif.; Seattle, Wash.; Nashville, Tenn.; Dallas and Fort Worth, Texas; and New Orleans.

The Society reserves ten per cent. of associate members' dues for the purchase of etchings from the annual exhibitions and presentation to the permanent collection of the Art Institute. At the exhibition of 1913 eleven etchings by the following members were purchased: C. K. Gleason, Lester G. Hornby,

Bertha E. Jaques, B. J. O. Nordfeldt, G. R. Partridge, Ralph M. Pearson, E. H. Reed, E. D. Roth, Franklin T. Wood and Sears Gallagher.

The 1913 publication for associate members was a monograph on the Etching of Bridges written by Thomas Eddy Tallmadge to accompany two etchings of Pont Neuf by C. K. Gleeson and G. R. Partridge. These plates were selected from a competitive list, 250 copies printed and plates destroyed. The publication for 1914 will be similar to that of 1913.

Restricted space made it necessary for the jury of selection to decline 248 prints out of 491 submitted; 243 were accepted.

Three prizes of twenty-five dollars each have been offered for the best etchings in landscape, architecture and portrait or figure work, as follows:

Mr. Wallace L. DeWolf, $25 for landscape.

Mr. R. P. Lamont, $25 for portrait or figures.

Mr. Frank G. Logan, $25 for architecture.

The committee to award these prizes and also to select, from the present exhibition, the etchings for purchase and presentation to the permanent collection of the Chicago Art Institute by the Chicago Society of Etchers, consists of:

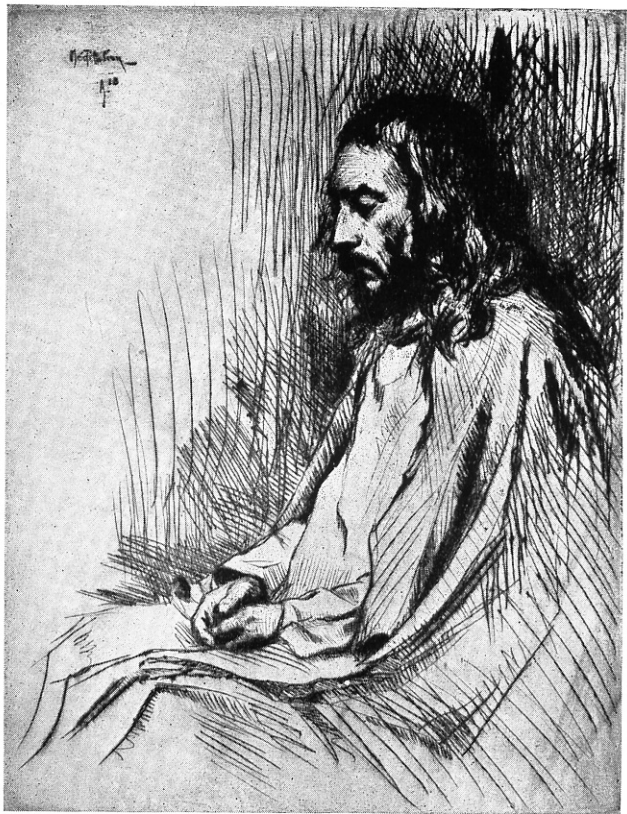

MR. WALLACE L. DEWOLF,
MR. BRYAN LATHROP,
MR. HOWARD SHAW,
MR. OLIVER DENNETT GROVER,
MR. CHARLES FRANCIS BROWN.

For information regarding exhibits for sale apply to Miss Willard at desk. Duplicate proofs may be ordered from the artist through Miss Willard.

All payments for exhibits purchased must be made to the Secretary of the Art Institute.
