

The Trustees of the Detroit Museum of Art invite you to inspect three nearly completed decorative panels painted by

Mr. Edwin Howland Bashfield

for the house of Mr. Everett Morss of Boston. The paintings will be on exhibition until the thirtieth of November.

The paintings represent "Hospitality," "Music" and "Books." Mr. Bashfield is the author of "Mural Painting in America," and is recognized as one of the leading mural painters of this country. He is a trustee of the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York, a member of the National Commission of Fine Arts, and President of the American Society of Mural Painters. At the request of the Trustees he has kindly consented to allow these decorations to be exhibited in Detroit just prior to installing them in Mr. Morss' residence. They have been exhibited only at the Century Club and in the Vanderbilt Gallery of the Fine Arts Building, New York.