FRANCIS PETRUS PAULUS

A native of Detroit, is a member of the Society of Black and White, Paris; Chicago Society of Etchers, and Charter Member of the Society of Western Artists.

Most of the pictures in this exhibition were painted in Bruges, Belgium, and represent the life and character of the people. They have been exhibited in London, and at the Paris Salon, where they received very favorable comment.

Mr. Paulus has preserved for us a picture of the every-day life of the people in Belgium, which on account of the present war may never be seen again.
